Get to know Berlin

Residential areas for Arden students

Considered prime locales among both students and expats, neighbourhoods like Friedrichshain, Kreuzberg, Prenzlauer Berg, and Wedding, provide quick and convenient access to Arden via public transport. Brimming with cafes, restaurants, and amenities, they offer a vibrant backdrop for your academic journey.

Efficient urban mobility

Berlin is renowned for its streamlined, economical, and well-structured transportation network. From its comprehensive underground subways to an array of trains, trams, buses, and cycling routes, the city boasts an interconnectedness that ranks among the best in the world.

Exploring the cultural landscape

As a beacon of diversity, Berlin is a hub of historical, cultural, and artistic pursuits. You can immerse yourself in local history, marvel at unique architecture and art, or indulge in leisure activities – the city caters to all interests.

Retail paradise

With a spectrum of choices catering to varied tastes and budgets, Berlin's shopping scene stands unparalleled. Navigate through shopping centres, iconic streets, vintage havens, and global market halls to curate a shopping experience aligned with your preferences.

Culinary delights

Benefiting from its cosmopolitan makeup, Berlin emerges as a culinary melting pot. The city's distinctive international blend makes it a unique gastronomic destination. From indulging in global cuisines to exploring budget-friendly culinary gems, it offers something for every palate.

Frequently Asked Questions

We want you to make the most of your time studying with us in Berlin, and we're committed to helping you achieve your professional and academic goals while you're here. To find out more about studying with us and student life in Berlin, here are some of our FAQs:

Why should I study in Berlin?

- Boost your career skills
- Experience student life in a city filled with opportunities
- Affordable cost of living compared to other European cities
- Work 120 days/year (or 240 half days) while studying
- Stay in Germany to find work with an 18-month post-study residence permit

Are your courses recognised and accredited?

Yes. You will be awarded a recognised British degree by Arden University in the UK, and many of our courses are accredited by leading professional organisations.

Will I need a visa to study in Germany?

Most students coming to Germany from outside the European Union need a student visa to study long-term (longer than 90 days). Our team will support you throughout the visa process.

How much support will I receive while I'm studying?

Our Student Support team is here to help you with anything you might need during your studies, including:

- Administrative guidance
- Academic study skills
- Personal well-being
- Finding accommodation in Berlin
- Transitioning into student life in a new city

Do you offer language support?

Yes. You will have access to our English Language Hub, helping you improve your academic English and study success. We also offer free A1 and A2 German language lessons to enhance your university experience and job prospects if you wish to stay in Germany after you graduate.
